ALLEN, Mary Catherine MILLER	May 22, 1866	Feb. 18, 1945	Spouse: Adam S. ALLEN married 1887.
ARMSTRONG, Amanda Rose TOMLINSON	Jan. 17, 1981	Oct. 25, 2013	Spouse: Wayne Edward ARMSTRONG. Parents: Don TOMLINSON & Elaine KNICK . Child: Austin ARMSTRONG. Sibling: Tammy TOMLINSON.
Amanda Rose (Tomlinson) Armstrong, 32, of Bridgewater, passed away on Friday, Oct. 25, 2013, at her home after a courageous 32-month battle with cancer. She was born in Roanoke, Va., on Jan. 17, 1981, and was a daughter of Don and Elaine (Knick) Tomlinson of Weyers Cave. She graduated from Fort Defiance High School and then studied computer science at Blue Ridge Community College. After working successfully in several sales jobs, Amanda found a position that matched her great faith as well as her outgoing personality as a secretary at Bridgewater United Methodist Church. On April 3, 2004, she was united in marriage to Wayne Edward Armstrong at Summit Church of the Brethren. Surviving in addition to her husband and parents are a 5-year-old son, Austin Armstrong of Bridgewater; a sister, Tammy Tomlinson of Hinton, as well as Tammy's son, Dylan, daughter, Saige, fiancé, Chris Maragni, and Chris' daughter, Holly; father and mother in-law, Eldon and Sandy Armstrong of Bridgewater; a sister-in-law, Rebecca Wong of Dayton and husband, Neal; as well as many aunts, uncles and cousins. Amanda drew great joy and strength from the prayers, cards, visits, and messages of her family and friends — just as all of them were blessed by her as she shared her warmth, humor, and beautiful singing voice as a member of Summit Church-based gospel group Due North. In 2012, Amanda released a solo gospel album called "Believe." A memorial service will be held at Summit Church of the Brethren, where Amanda was a member, at 7 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 28, 2013, with the Revs. Jim Tongue, Jim Harris, Cole Scrogam, and John Glick officiating. Burial will be private. The family will receive friends on Sunday, Oct. 27, 2013, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Johnson Funeral Service in Bridgewater. Memorial contributions may be made to Bridgewater United Methodist Church, 219 N. Main St., Bridgewater, VA 22812, or Summit Church of the Brethren, 314 Summit Church Road, Bridgewater, VA 22812. Mrs. H. H. CRAUN, Succumbs Here, Burketown Resident            Passes away at Home of Daughter            BURKETOWN, June 24--Mrs. Louella Virginia CRAUN, 86, widow of Harvey H. CRAUN, and a native and beloved resident of the Burketown community, died Thursday morning at 11:40 o'clock, at the home her [of] her daughter. Miss Carrie CRAUN, who resided with Mrs. Julius WISE on S. Main Street in Harrisonburg, following an extended illness.            Mrs. CRAUN, who had been in ill health for a number of years and had suffered a heart attack sixteen months ago, had been seriously ill for the past three weeks with her condition considered critical since Sunday. News of her death brought sorrow to her many friends who knew her as a kind, friendly and humble person who had a word of cheer for those she loved.            A daughter of the late Samuel FRANK and Mrs. Caroline RITCHIE FRANK, she was born one mile west of Burketown on June 4, 1868 and had spent practically her entire life in the Burketown community. Mrs. CRAUN had been making her home with her daughter at the WISE residence in Harrisonburg since October 6, 1953.            Mrs. CRAUN possessed a genial personality and had a host of friends in Harrisonburg and Augusta and Rockingham counties. She was a devoted mother and a good neighbor and friend always willing to help those who needed her. A lifelong and active member of the Summit Church of the Brethren, she taught for a number of years in its Sunday School. She was also one of the early leaders and an active member of the Ladies Aid Society of the church.            On Nov. 25, 1886, she was united in marriage to Harvey H. CRAUN. Mr. CRAUN, a prominent resident and farmer of the Burketown community, preceded her in death on July 21, 1928.            Surviving are eight children. Daniel M. CRAUN, and Mrs. Elta C. WAMPLER, both of Waynesboro; Miss Carolyn (Carrie) W. CRAUN, of Harrisonburg; Harry B. CRAUN, Mrs. Mary Faye MELTON, and Mrs. Melba V. SIMMONS, all of Staunton; Arthur B. CRAUN, of Mt. Sidney, and Henry H. CRAUN, of Burketown; thirteen grandchildren, nine great grandchildren, and three great great grandchildren; two nieces, Mrs. S. I. CLINE, of Burketown, and Mrs. B. C. TUTWILER, of Harrisonburg.            A son, Samuel F. CRAUN died March, 1946. Four half-sisters, Mrs. L. D. EARMAN, Mrs. Edward BURNS, Mrs. George LONG, and Mrs. Pete SHERMAN also preceded her in death as well as three half brothers, John E. FRANK, Jacob FRANK, and Joseph FRANK.            Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at three o'clock from the Summit Church of the Brethren, with the Rev. William C. EICHER in charge of the services, assisted by the Rev. J. C. GARBER. Burial will be in the family lot in the Summit Church Cemetery.            Active pallbearers will be: W. Newton SHIFFLETT, Orvin E. CLINE, Leon H. DIEHL, and Ward FIFER.            Members of the Women's Bible Class of the Summit Church of the Brethren will serve as flower bearers.            The body now rests at the Lindsey Funeral Home on South Main Street in Harrisonburg where it will remain until ten o'clock. Saturday morning, when it will be taken to her late home in the Burketown community. Here it will remain until one-fifteen, Sunday afternoon, when it will be taken to the church to lie in state from two o'clock until the hour of the services.            Relatives are asked to meet at the CRAUN residence, Sunday afternoon, at two-thirty where a brief service will be held prior to leaving for the church.            Friends, active pallbearers, and flowerbearers are asked to meet at the church, Sunday afternoon at two-forty-five o'clock.            The casket will be opened at the church for an hour before the service, but will not be opened at the close of the service.
