

“During the night Paul had a vision of a man of Macedonia standing and begging him, ‘Come over to Macedonia and help us.’ After Paul had seen the vision, we got ready at once to leave for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.”

– Acts 16:9-10

“The jailer called for lights, rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. He then brought them out and asked, ‘Sirs, what must I do to be saved?’ They replied, ‘Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household.’” – Acts 16:29-31

“The jailer brought them into his house and set a meal before them; he was filled with joy because he had come to believe in God—he and his whole family.” – Acts 16:34

“After Paul and Silas came out of the prison, they went to Lydia’s house, where they met with the brothers and encouraged them. Then they left.” – Acts 16:40

“I cry out to God Most High, to God, who fulfills His purpose for me.” – Psalm 57:2

“The LORD will fulfill His purpose for me; Your love, O LORD, endures forever— do not abandon the works of Your hands.” – Psalm 138:8

“One of those listening was a woman named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth from the city of Thyatira, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to respond to Paul’s message.” – Acts 16:14
